Dear [REDACTED]:

Thank you for your letter of June second.

I appreciate your support for my legislative proposal. In the last few days I have received scores of letters supporting this plan and you may be sure that I shall do all in my power to see to it that the Congress passes this bill.

I believe that what is good for the education of the student is good for America. A nation that enjoyed a $40 billion growth in its economy in 1964 over the previous year can surely afford to help parents give their children the education that is the sinew and driving force of our national well-being. Our prosperity as a nation depends in large measure on how well we succeed in educating every child and student to his highest capacity.

I am pleased to comply with your request and I will forward to you under separate cover a copy of the bill for Federal aid to libraries.

Sincerely yours,

Winston L. Prouty
United States Senator
