WASHINGTON, D.C.

"Note that the House yields to the Senate" - letter line #12

"Now we acceded to the House on that." - Houska

The House can do some pretty good things."

"We've had some very terrible

Many keeps wanting to know Birch's mind.

McCulloch - "not that which is probable, but that which ~~is~~ may be possible."

Even the diamond has its flaws and the sun has its spots.

The issue is what if a majority of the House and 3/4 of Senate U.P. to continue, by not allowing a decision under Senate version. U.P.
will continue in office
