RECD MAR 29 1966

Hon. John J. Williams
U. S. Senate
Room 2213-New Senate Office Building
Washington, D. C.

Dear Senator Williams:

Please accept with my compliments the enclosed wall map of Viet Nam. This map has been a part of our national campaign to support our fighting men there. We hope in this way to assist the American public in becoming familiar with the geography of the area in which this nation is so deeply involved.

With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
National Commander

Thank you very much for your letter of March 21,
1966, and the Viet Nam Conflict Map which you enclosed.

I appreciate very much your courtesy in making a copy of this map available to me which I feel will be quite helpful in following developments in that country.

Yours sincerely,

JOHN J. WILLIAMS
